

For the first time in History, the manuscript of a book is sold as an NFT, in Paris France

On January 15, 2022, Boischaut company is organizing in Paris the first auction of an author file with NFT certificate, the french Best-Seller "Bitcoin et cryptomonnaies pour les nuls*" by Daniel Ichbiah and Jean-Martial Lefranc (First Publishing)

Paris, France Dec 29, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - This sale will allow the creation of a new segment in the Letters and Manuscripts market, allowing the valuation and preservation of files created for 30 years by book authors.

The lot put up for sale will consist of:

- The Word files of the first and second editions
- An NFT certificate associated with these files, created on the Polygon Blockchain by the company Āto
- A hard copy of the files, signed by the authors

In addition, the purchaser will - if he wishes to it - be named in the 3rd edition of the book, as the owner of this historic NFT. The acquisition will be secured by a contract drawn up by the company Āto, like the one accompanying the first sale of digital art Transition NFT carried out on October 23, 2021, by SVV Boischaut.
