Jacksonville, Florida Dec 13, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Intelligent Diva is back with another single which is from her gospel roots. As a musical artist, and the owner of their own record label Intelligent Diva Music, she has met several milestones within her career. One of her goals was not to become an artist that would be kept inside of a box by sticking to one genre of music. She started out the gate by releasing music under her own record label, which allows her to have this flexibility. She has become World Indie and Euro Charting artist releasing music that falls under the genre of pop, r&b, hip hop, urban Latin, jazz. Now she can add gospel rap to her catalog of music.

From 2020 to 2021, she has crossed multiple genres of music on the radio and streaming sites. The artist has obtained a grand total of 1,098,979 streams in her music catalog of original music without sampling. She became a Grammy contender in 2021 as an indie artist for Song of the Year where she was considered for a nomination against some heavy hitters. Although she didn't receive a nomination, being considered and accepted in such a tough category with a lot of mainstream artists was a huge accomplishment. This year in 2021, the artist had a total of 7 singles to chart on the Top 200 Euro Indie Chart, Top 100 World Indie Charts, Top 150 Indie Chart on Cashbox Music Magazine, Top 150 on the Record World Music Magazine Chart, Top 20 IRMIX Radio Countdown, and Top 20 World Radio Chart.

Intelligent Diva's elevator pitch keeps getting longer from singer, songwriter, lyricist, model, actress, producer, director, and entrepreneur. With such a growing list of accomplishments you can only sit at the edge of your seat waiting for what's coming in 2022

Intelligent Diva is kicking off the year 2022 with a song of testimony called "Sinner's Prayer." Sinner's Prayer is a very personal song expected to touch the hearts of many. She made a promise to herself that she would add a gospel song to her catalog of music. Her decision to make it a gospel rap song, came to her this year and it will be her first gospel song. For this song, the artist teamed up with Aaron Bing as a producer, where Intelligent Diva also is the co-producer of the song, songwriter, and performer.

The idea of the song came from writing about dark times in her life, where she prayed to God and wondered if he was listening? I.D. encountered some losses this year, and normally she doesn't deal with the loss of a loved one very well. For a moment she felt empty and turned to God in prayer. Prayers, support, and music helped her through those dark times. She starts the song out by talking to God lyrically. In the verses, while in the background it consists of her singing an angelic melody. In the chorus of the song, you are listening to the voices of Intelligent Diva and her brother Jashua Kenner as the choir. There is a lot of creativity within the song.

Due to the budget, she didn't want to bring in a choir. The brother and sister duo team up to sing the choir parts of the song in various keys, to sound like they are a choir of 8 to 10 people. This creativity was the idea of Intelligent Diva and was accomplished with the help of Aaron the producer. The music compliments the lyrics of the song. There are also other parts of the song, where the artist incorporated the things, she remembered hearing in church as the doors of the church would open. There are pieces in the song, which represent where Intelligent Diva, decided to artist rededicate her life to Christ. Intelligent Diva sings several different keys where she sounds like a church ensemble to represent her musical background which she grew in, and loved so much. The single "Sinner's Prayer" also includes the artist admitting to backsliding and not being perfect. We also love the way the music mogul adds voice acting to her song. Intelligent Diva believes in showcasing the talent of people in her project. She likes to also use the talent of voice actors in her songs. Her brother Jashua Kenner returns to this track as the voice of God in the song as a sign to Intelligent Diva that he's listening to her prayers.

The song also includes her mother Brendina, and daughter Suqura in the song as the prayer warriors. The song is a message which symbolizes we are not perfect, and God forgives. The artist Intelligent Diva tells us this song was a challenge to record and leading up to the release has been challenging just to get the song done and completed on time to meet the scheduled release date. She states that she prayed and will not allow anything to block her from releasing this song. It's obviously a message that someone needs to hear. It's very personal to her for this song to be a part of her music catalog representing her roots. Intelligent Diva feels this is one of her best projects yet, and that it will touch the hearts of many. The artist is planning to touch another genre with the gospel rap track. There will also be online merchandise available for purchase that will feature lyrics from the new single. We can't wait until January 2022 to hear this amazing track on the airwaves and streaming sites.
