

International Nova took to the red carpet of the latest in a series of thrilling trilogies. ‘True to the Game 3’ premier

Atlanta, Georgia Dec 4, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - 'True to the Game 3' premiered in Atlanta, Georgia, homebase to the talented singer.

Stars such as Columbus Short, Jeremy Meeks, Omar Gooding, Darius Mc Gray graced the screen with gripping performances. The film, directed by David Wolfgang and produced by Manny Halley is based on the series written by New York Times bestselling author, Teri Woods. In the third installment, Quadir and Gena pick up where they left off and plot to escape the city.

International Nova relocated to Atlanta, from Bronx NY in an effort to expand upon his career. The vocalist fine-tuned his sound to not only be catchy but to retain the Caribbean notes of his Afro-Latino heritage. He has opened for household names such as Pitbull, Musiq Soulchild, and the 'Unforgettable' French Montana. While staying humble, he regularly looks back at each performance and emits pride in what he's accomplished. Although, he knows this is just the beginning for him.

Nova has also been a regular staple on beloved programs such as fan-favorite, Love, and Hip-Hop Atlanta. He has also made an appearance in the cult classic, All Eyez On Me, a film based on the life of the fondly treasured rapper, Tupac. Recently, International Nova's music made an appearance on the AMC original program, Covenant. As he walked the red carpet to that event he was unaware that his music had inspired the producers to choose his hit 'Dale' to set the mood. It was a welcomed surprise for Nova, as he was unaware of the impact his career had made.

That is not all for the booming musician. Rolling Stone named Nova as the 'Global Artist to Watch' in yet another twist of pleasant unplanned events. He has collected over 1 million streams for his favored single, 'Controla', and the number only continues to grow. International Nova is looking forward to 2022, as he intends to release an album that will have everyone on their feet. The star can be followed on social media at @internationalnova.
