KELLIEKEL

Fort Worth, Texas Dec 31, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - We love it when we meet people who are super ambitious and refused to be kept inside a box. This is why we love to share stories on the accomplishments of multi-talented people who follow their dreams. At IDM, we focus on the positives and not the negatives and we love to share the progress on how an indie artist elevates. Kellie Kel has definitely done that this year in a short amount of time. She has mastered the word viral on Tik Tok. Let's talk about these numbers she's receiving on Tik Tok, which lead to the popular demand for her latest accomplishment.

As a disclaimer we must add, the content on Tik Tok by Kellie Kel is intended for an adult audience only. It's not recommended for an audience under the age of 18. The KellieKel show on Tik Tok has 129.3k followers and she has posted a total of 59 videos. Kellie has received a total of 29.7M views, and the analytics reflect there are actually enough watch hours of her videos to start a television or web series that could run for several seasons. When you listen to the content, it does touch on subjects where people can agree or disagree. It's her content that makes the engagement receive such high analytics. Part of the engagement from the audience has resulted in people creating stitches from the videos on Tik Tok and YouTube.

As a life coach, and sharing her knowledge based on her own experiences the audience became entertained which led to a demand by her fans requesting her to write a book around relationships. Kellie Kel heard the demand of her audience and has supplied the world with her new e-book " The Relationship Bible".

As an author who recently became a certified life coach, she's a pure genius with the strategy executed around the book. While Kellie is known as an indie music artist, you can hear her very own music softly playing in her Tik Tok videos. Each chapter in the book contains snippets of lyrics to the songs which she has written. The entrepreneur has combined all of their talents together and found a new niche by simply being herself and giving her audience something to think about.

With such a high demand for the book, her pre-sale launch was a huge success. During this time where small business is suffering due to lack of resources, her multiple skillsets have allowed her to become generate some huge numbers by doing all of the work herself. She's definitely building this empire on her own with the huge support of her fans. Kellie Kel is now a music artist who is also a certified life coach who has self-published her first book on Barnes & Noble. We think she has launched a best seller!

Social Media appears to be one source of marketing for small businesses. It doesn't matter if you are in the entertainment business or not. Tik Tok is becoming the top site, and people are not being discovered just for music anymore. People who are being discovered are being recognized for their niches. For any television networks paying attention, check out her statistics on her Tik Tok Channel for the KellieKel show. The new author has turned her viral videos into chapters of an E-book with these statistics, these same chapters can become a television series with a large number of viewers.

While we won't provide you with additional as to the content in the book, this is because we recommend that you check it out and read it for yourself. Her fans have shared the relationship guide has really helped them to think about the relationships they are currently in. We would love for you to check it out for yourself and share your thoughts.
