

Leawo Releases Screen Recorder 1.0.0.0 to Record Screen with Audio, Real-Time Drawing, Mouse Effects, and More

Leawo Software today officially launched their Screen Recorder 1.0.0.0, introducing a multifunctional screen recorder consisting of a screen recorder, webcam recorder, audio recorder and screen capture.

Shenzhen, Guangdong Dec 7, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - The recording screen used to be a challenge. Fortunately, in order to help people record screens with minimal effort, Leawo Software, a company specialized in multimedia solutions and data management software, today announced the official launch of Leawo Screen Recorder 1.0.0.0. Leawo Screen Recorder has made screen recording easier, empowering users to easily record screens with audio, real-time drawing, mouse effects, and more. Apart from being a screen recorder, Leawo Screen Recorder can also act as a webcam recorder, an audio recorder, and a screenshot capture.

Multifunctional Screen Recorder

By definition, a screen recorder refers to recording anything that is happening on the screen, but Leawo Screen Recorder is more than a screen recorder. It is combined with four modules – Screen Recorder, Webcam Recorder, Audio Recorder, and Screen Capture can be activated individually, or can be enabled as a supplement to another running module.

- Screen Recorder can record all activities on the computer screen as a high-quality screencast.
- Webcam Recorder can record video from webcam.

- Audio Recorder can record system sound and/or microphone audio.
- Screen Capture can capture anything on screen as a screenshot.

Boost Productivity and Creativity with Various Occasions

Although some competitors do offer screen recorders, their built-in features hardly work as well and are convenient as Leawo Screen Recorder does. With a simplified and easy-to-use interface, Leawo Screen Recorder can easily boost productivity and creativity through the following aspects:

- Create interactive tutorial videos with various doodle and annotation tools, sharing knowledge and ideas without barriers.
- Record dynamic PowerPoint presentations with audio narration using webcam and microphone.
- Record gameplay directly from graphics card at 60FPS frame rate, including large 3D games.
- Record streaming video with audio in high definition.
- Record screen with a webcam overlay, which makes the online meeting more efficient.
- Add background music or voiceover to video, better strengthening the audio-visual function of video.
- Record high-quality online music from computer internal audio, with various formats and sample rate selectable.

In addition to the above reference purposes, users can also make the best use of this software according to their own needs, because there will be dozens of different usage combinations.

Additional Features of Leawo Screen Recorder

Obviously, for professionals, the basic screen recording features are far from enough. To meet more advanced needs, Leawo Screen Recorder adds abundant bonus features. For example, users can:

- Insert mouse click effects and animation while screen recording to highlight the movement of the mouse cursor.
- Use annotation and graffiti on screencast or screenshot to express ideas more concisely and clearly.
- Add exclusive watermark or logo to screen recordings.
- Record computer sounds and/or microphone audio.
- Quickly select the most recent used recording area.
- Easily customize shortcuts to start or stop recording, pause or resume recording, screen capture, open or close webcam, and show or hide the flat panel.
- Schedule recording tasks and duration to improve recording efficiency.

Price & Availability

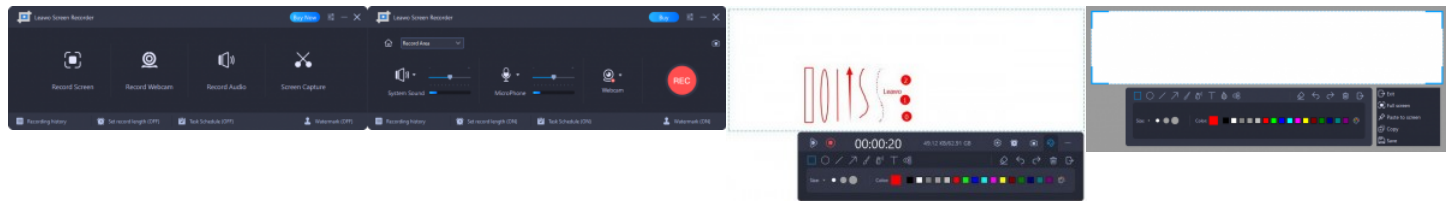

Currently, Leawo Screen Recorder is available for Windows only, including Windows 7, 8, 10, and 11, and will soon be available on macOS. Beginning today, all users can download and experience this screen recorder for free. To celebrate the release of Leawo Screen Recorder, Leawo offers up to $30
