

Marvment - distribution choice for independent music video and audio producers

MarvMent makes music publishing easy by providing express distribution to the largest audio and video music platforms in the world

New York City, New York Dec 1, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - As an independent music producer choosing the right distribution company to release one's productions can be a tedious process, identifying this challenge, audio and video distribution company Marvment developed an easy-to-use platform for producers to quickly get their music videos and audio out to the world. Along with its 'foolproof' user-friendly interface, the company boasts transparency in results reporting, by providing analytics to clients and monthly statements.

On a daily basis, producers are faced with the challenge of sifting through several providers with the hopes of finding the best one.

One such way of identifying a good music distributor is to identify whether or not they are 'content partners' with the streaming platforms that they distribute to.

Marvment has done their homework and has secured direct partnerships with the companies that they release music videos and audio to. Marvment is listed on VEVO's website among its recommended, content partners.

Working with content partners gives producers an opportunity to collect more of the streaming earnings that a music release generates.

Marvment's catalogue includes the works of popular musicians spanning Pop, Modern music, Dancehall, Reggae, Hip Hop, Spanish and other genres.

Their world-class content management service provides an avenue for independent music producers who want to have their works set for upload to a music video or audio streaming platforms without hassle.

After producing a song and spending thousands of dollars to mix and master it. Then producing an immaculate video to add visuals to it, no producer wants to have his work sitting on his hard drive or cloud. You certainly just want to put it in the hands of a trusted and capable distributor who can get it on the right streaming platforms with ease. Tested and proven, Marvment distribution took note of this, making the digital distribution process as simplified as possible.
