

Meta Fantasy starts official NFT sales on Binance

New York City, New York Dec 26, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Meta Fantasy started official NFT sales on Binance on December 24, 2021. The greatly anticipated FantaVerse series of NFT characters and equipment, along with associated physical products (FantaGlass VR set) and special packs have officially launched on Binance NFT (<https://tinyurl.com/FantaVerseNFTOnBinanceNFT>) today! Within 1 hour of release, the Fantaverse NFT sales attained 4th place on the Binance NFT marketplace

The current series of FantaVerse NFT products (<https://www.fantaverse.io>) was created by the FantaVerse community, incorporating elements of anime artwork and gaming. Each NFT represents just one small dimension of the Fantaverse family, which includes player characters, NPC's (Non-Playing Character), weapons, armors, and more to come.

A huge thank you to all FantaVerse supporters and community members for the fantastic display of support. Meta Fantasy, the parent company that is spearheading FantaVerse, shall continue to devote its full resources to developing the FantaVerse roadmap and ecosystem. To satisfy the demand from the FantaVerse community, more NFT items will be released in the coming weeks and months. FantaVerse welcomes all serious gamers, game-designers, game studios, 3D modellers, and builders to join in the fun by getting your very own unique piece of FantaVerse.
