

Tanya Nolen, LPN, a Licensed Practical Nurse

Get to know Licensed Practical Nurse, Tanya Nolen, who serves patients in Alexandria, Alabama.

New York City, New York Dec 30, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Tanya is a licensed practical nurse currently serving her patients in Alexandria, Alabama. She specializes in hospice, geriatric rehab, pediatrics, and adult disabilities.

Academically, she graduated with her licensed practical nurse degree from Ayers Career College in 1994.

On a more personal note, Tanya attributes her success to her dedication to the profession.

A Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) is on the front line of nursing, interacting directly with patients on a daily basis. They work under the supervision of doctors and RNs, performing duties such as taking vital signs, collecting lab specimens, administering medication, ensuring patient comfort, performing skills like trach care, foley care, ostomy care, wound care, G- tube care I.V. care, and reporting the status of their patients to their case managers.

LPNs are generally hired in settings such as doctors' offices, hospitals, nursing homes, home health environments, and rehabilitation centers. They must be skilled in balancing care for patients, performing skilled tasks, and completing practical daily administrative duties.

Learn More about Tanya Nolen:

Through her online profile, <https://todaysnurse.org/network/index.php?do=/4148333/info/>

Media Contact

Your Health Contact

clientservice@yourhealthcontact.com

Source : Tanya Nolen, LPN

See on IssueWire