What makes you different as a person and as an artist?

As a person, I have considered myself different in many aspects that have marked me today and that have made me what I am today, like working by my own means to achieve my dreams.
As an artist, because when you work hard and with effort, you can achieve what you want and become good at it. You enjoy it a lot and it becomes your passion. You Achieve Success that way.

What do you want to accomplish in life?

I want people to realize all the sacrifices I have made to get to where I am, I want my music to reach many parts of the world. I also want to leave a positive message to all the public full of joy and hope that everything is possible with effort and dedication. Connect the world with my music, Do a lot of different collaborations with people from different genres.

Where do you see yourself in 5 years?

As a triumphant and with all my goals achieved due to my efforts in my career as an artist. Helping my entire family as much as possible. And help new artists on the rise. Being heard internationally and accomplishing a lot of things based on music.

What do you bring to the music world?

Experience extraordinary moments and have people connect with my songs, transmit and express a unique emotion. A unique style, positivism, and energy.

What legacy do you want to leave behind?

Inspire many people with my music and to never stop fighting for their dreams, to be represented by future artists, my name to be remembered. My music to been heard for many years.
