New York City, New York Dec 27, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - A caring pediatric otolaryngologist, Dr. Szeremeta sees patients at Children's ENT of Houston, with office locations in Houston, Webster, Sugar Land, and Shenandoah, Texas.

Children's ENT of Houston is a specialized, child-centered practice treating patients with common to complex ear, nose, and throat conditions and diagnoses. They are proud to provide their patients and their families with easy access to their ENT specialists and staff in the Texas Medical Center and the community. In partnership with their multiple hospital partners, their practice offers the complete spectrum of pediatric ENT services to ensure their patients receive the highest-quality care possible.

Graduating with his medical degree from Jefferson Medical College, Dr. Szeremeta completed his internship at the Medical Center of Delaware and his residency in otolaryngology with the Henry Ford Health System. Finally, he completed his fellowship in pediatric otolaryngology at the Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh.

An expert in his field, the doctor is board-certified in otolaryngology by the American Board of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery, which is a non-profit corporation that has set the mission of ensuring professional standards with certificates and memberships and has offered training in the fields of head neck surgery to professionals since 1924.

Otolaryngology is the oldest medical specialty in the United States. Pediatric otolaryngologists are primarily concerned with medical and surgical treatment of ear, nose, and throat diseases in children. They generally provide the following services: diagnosis and treatment of ear, nose, and throat disorders, as well as head and neck diseases.
