Afrobeat music inv and architect Elvis Darko, DBA, Ph.D. aka Bettafella, to put up a 1 billion GBP concert after 600 million movie endorsement from Swedish Prince Carl Philips

Watford, Hertfordshire Jan 12, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Elvis Darko, DBA, Ph.D., an acclaimed Afrobeat inv and business architect, has announced that he is looking forward to building a billion pounds to celebrate his success.

His 600-million-dollar success and accomplishment with Warren Buffett, Jay Z, Barack Obama, Swedish, and British Royal families have led to the creation of the 56 billion USD success.

Elvis has been very successful in many ventures, not least in his ability to attract world-class people as investors or employees. Darko is one of those people who does not stop till he gets there when he sets out to accomplish something. He's a force of nature, and that's why everyone loves to work with him. This historical and legendary mega-concert will help raise afrobeat music to great heights.

The concert is expected to have a large crowd from around the world and will be held in Djurgarden IF Tele 2 Stadium as it's a club where he has been appointed as a director by Swedish monarch Carl XVI Gustaf.

Also, it will be held at Wembley Stadium and in Omaha, Nebraska, a sports stadium owned by Warren Buffett, who helped Elvis Darko fulfill his mission to make $56 billion by the age of 26 in 2013.

ACDC, Ed Sheeran, Madonna, Kathie Perry, 50 Cent, Rihanna, Beyonce, Zara Larsson, Adam Kanyama, Stormzy, Big Shaq, Lethal Bizzle, Burna Bwoy, Davido, Wiz Kid, Lazee, Stone Bwoy, and Shatta Wale to are some of the artists who have expressed interest in the concert.

Further, Elvis Darko will be launching the books entitled "How I turned 200 Sek Into a Billion in 4 Years," "How I Raised Trillions," "500 Billion philosopher Stone" and "The Creation of a Megastar (5w+h = luck and abundance)" with multiple stories about his experiences starting up. The books are due to launch next year. So please keep your eyes peeled for when they become available.
