15 Years Child Story

Pawai, Madhya Pradesh Jan 6, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Archna Singraul was born.

These are Archna Singraul, a resident of Pawai, District- Panna, Madhya Pradesh. (Archna Singraul) Whose age is only 17 years old but the steps he took to do social service are very incomparable. She continues to do wonderful social service with the support of her parents, her elder sister Anju Lodhi and her brother. He has set a true example of humanity.

Along with studying b, a, first year, Archna's daughter has written a new chapter of social service. Archna Singraul was born in a small village in a poor farmer family. She is the youngest among her siblings. She did her early education in a private institute in Pawai, but due to lack of money, she left the private school and continued her studies in a government school and is currently a BA first-year student in a government school.

Archna is always engaged and engaged from a young age for the betterment of society. She is often seen serving the poor and helpless people. He believes that life does not come again and again and our life is not just to become a big man and earn a lot of money, we should do everything which is truly good for the betterment of our society and the people living in that society. There should be an act of goodness in the form of a step taken in a manner.

Archna started teaching Mehndi, Dance, and Singing along with teaching free coaching to the children. So that the poor society becomes aware of education and new bright children can come out of the society regularly.

Whereas boys and girls of this age spend a lot of money on their food and drink, while the money that Archna gets from the family members, she goes to the poor settlement and distributes the food items to the children.

Social Worker, Team: On the one hand, we and you spend Diwali to light up our homes and do not know how much money is spent unnecessarily. People care about themselves and their children. While Archna herself was a child, Archna celebrated Diwali by distributing sweets to poor children and wearing slippers to hundreds of children. This daughter always keeps on doing true social service with selflessness. I am proud to see these sisters grow.

Archna Singraul, a social worker from Panna district, does social work since the age of 15 and if she talks about her popularity, she is no less than an MP, MLA and has millions of fan followings on her social media platforms such as like
