Get to know Internist Dr. Cheryl R. Pendergrass, who serves patients in Mesa, Arizona.

New York City, New York Jan 27, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - A skilled internist, Dr. Pendergrass has been the Hospice Medical Director of Americare Hospice & Palliative Care since its start-up in 2005. She is leading the team as their Hospice Physician, making home visits to their patients and at the in-patient unit to manage their pain and symptoms. Not only does she direct the overall plan of care for their patients, but she is also a resource to the other Hospice Team Physicians and the interdisciplinary team.

Americare Hospice & Palliative Care is committed to providing specialized care designed for people in the last phase of an incurable illness. They provide many benefits that are not possible in a traditional healthcare setting. The focus of care is on pain and symptom relief so their patients can live their life in comfort and peace.

Before embarking on her professional journey, Dr. Pendergrass earned her medical degree from the University of Arizona Medical College at Tucson in 1997, and completed her residency in internal medicine at the University of Arizona Medical College at Phoenix in 2000, and has been practicing medicine since then. She also works part-time as a Hospitalist at Banner University Medical Center.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.
