

Free Wedding Ceremonies on Valentine's Day

Free Weddings return after Covid caused cancelation in 2021

Mystic, Connecticut Jan 7, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Free Wedding Ceremonies on Valentine's Day

Mystic, Connecticut has changed over the years and has become a true traveler's destination. The restaurants, the beauty, the history, and the waterfront all make Mystic a popular destination. For almost two decades one very special person provides a very special service. CT Justice of the Peace & Non-denominational Minister- Marie Tyler Wiley will once again perform FREE wedding ceremonies for couples on Valentine's Day, Monday, February 14th at the Meeting House in Olde Mistick Village. Ceremonies will be performed from 10 am until 2 pm. Weddings are first to come – first serve. No registration is required. Let's face it planning a wedding can become so stressful, that you may forget the whole point of the day - love and ROMANCE!!! What better place to get married than Mystic, Connecticut?

Couples are required to present an official wedding license from the Town of Stonington. Licenses may be obtained at the Stonington Town Hall, Monday-Friday from 8:30 am-4:00 pm. Stonington Town Hall can be reached at (860) 535-5060 and is located at 152 Elm St., Stonington.

Couples wanting to renew their vows are also welcome. Nothing is necessary for a vow renewal. Commitment ceremonies are also available, for those who simply show up and have fun.

"On the most romantic day of the year I love to give couples who are ready to take the plunge, but may have limited resources, a special and unique wedding experience," said Tyler-Wiley.

You will have the choice of one of 5 ceremonies provided to choose from for your ceremony. No wedding would be complete with pictures! Each year a wonderful Professional Wedding Photographer offers up their expertise to make the day special.

Marie Tyler Wiley has the distinction of having been voted #1 in CT since 2007 by such illustrious companies as The Knot.com, Wedding Wire, Bride magazine, Modern Bride, Martha Stewart Weddings, and many more.
