Hollywood's fastest rising star Actor & Director Romario Facey

Albertville, Alabama Jan 10, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Ramario Facey is an actor and director born in Linstead, a small town in St. Catherine, Jamaica. He has always wanted to be an actor, but where he grew up acting was considered an impossible task. At twelve years old, all his cousins would say that they wanted to be soldiers or police officers, however, when his mother asked what he wanted to be he told her that he wanted to be an actor, and not just an actor but a Hollywood star and she got very upset because she was like, "You live in Jamaica, we live in a small country part of Jamaica to be exact." So she thought it was an unrealistic dream and to her, it seemed as though he was just trying to be an idler and using this as an excuse to waste time. She got really upset about it and he just couldn't let it go because something inside of him knew that that's what he wanted to do and that's what he was going to do because it was his passion.

As years progressed it became even more unrealistic to more people. As he got older his mother and family members would revisit the same question, "what do I want to become" and I would tell them I wanted to become an actor and a Hollywood star and they started to think that he was crazy, make fun of him and called him insane. He knew that it was possible but he just didn't know how, but he had faith in God and he knew things would work themselves out.

The way he grew up, he didn't have everything that he wanted but he had most of what he needed. His mom and step-dad tried everything to make sure that they had a roof over their heads and a hot meal even if it wasn't what they really wanted at that time. When he was sixteen, he decided that he wanted to take a step in the direction of his career.
