

Meet Upcoming Artist Balmain Shawty

Washington, Virginia Jan 5, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Balmain Shawty, 25, from Washington, DC. Balmain got where he is today because of his talent. On his road to success hasn't been easy; however, back in 2015 Balmain was in a terrible accident and he lost countless friends and he also lost his companion and his mother six months apart back in 2020. Balmain had to deal with a lot of trauma and a lot of deaths.

Balmain states, "For any readers who desire to find success in their life, pray and keep God 1st. Also, never give up, I have been in rooms with people and I worked with people I never thought I would be around or work with because I haven't taken my craft seriously. I have a lot of talent and amazing networking skills and you have to be consistent you never know who's watching you".

Balmain Shawty is an upcoming artist from the DMV who has a variety of features with well-known artists such as Kirko Bangz, Montana of 300, 2Chainz, VA artist Kiara Simone, MD Artist Rico Nasty Lyquin, Big Flock, and many more. Balmain is also an actor and author. He recently wrote a book on mental health that will be available very soon. Balmain mentions, "you should work with me because my talent and who I am as a person am a genuine individual that wants to see everybody win. I am not in competition with nobody we can all eat together".

Success to Balmain means to wake up every day and accomplish your goals and apply pressure towards your dreams. Balmain might not be where he needs to be, but he has come along way. Balmain states, "I am not where I was 5 years ago, so I am becoming Successful".

Balmain has a project coming out called "KarenSonToo" which is a 15 track project with no features. He is also releasing another project in February called "Dedicated To Love Vol.1" and he will be dropping a single on February 25th. The Book Release and The Movie "Am" will be coming out soon.
