For hundreds of years, people in the East have been using Infrared Light in the healing process, as well as herbs, grans, roots, mushrooms, and acupuncture. All with great and enormous success for their patients. More and more Americans are turning to alternative medicines' healing properties.

Regenerating the body's (stemcellbars.com) own stem cells seem to have a remarkable positive effect on people who suffer from Parkinson's, Alzheimer's. Cancer and MS. Here are a few testimonies of its effectiveness.
