TayOG Is Hit Man With The Plan

Chicago, Illinois Jan 16, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Chicago-based artist, TayOG has become the hip hop magnet for the fans after he released the long-anticipated album 'Feelings Of A Savage'. The young artist is close to touching the sky with his gradual prominence in the music market. Though it apparently looks like the music world is overcrowded with legacies from world-famous musicians, stars like the Chicago rapper make their own spot in history with organic creativity. The album is about the love he receives from the legion of fans who have supported him since the beginning. TayOG has managed to top charts, radio play, and have his music videos on major networks such as BET, MTV, and VH1, to name a few.

TayOG used to have a simple life as long as he underestimated his creative freedom. Unlike other amateurs who blindly follow trends and beg for some attention, he chooses to speak about the devil he tamed in his heart. His airy compositions gave him enough room to underlay the songs with true colors of his passion and pain. Songs like 'Bussin' and 'MWTP' have menacing production, pioneered by his struggling wounds. His rhymes in vigilant cadences have influenced this generation to be ruthless and brutally honest about their choices.

The dreamy keys in the latest album 'Feelings of A Savage' are coupled with powerful vocals and a smothering rap flow. His intense rapping skills are the source of originating the groovy, unique sounds.

His drill rap style successfully uncovers the disgraceful social and political imbalance. His superior, experimental sounds produced under Revoc Productions carry little reminiscent of the works of Mac Miller, Logic, and Xxxtentacion. Currently, he is busy with the last touches finishing the next EP “Mood Swings”. Stay woke with his new Music and Instagram.
