

Sarah Lines To Offer Goddess Retreat As A Sanctuary To Women

Seeking refuge in nature to create balance and healing during pandemic.

South Australia, Australia Jan 22, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Sarah Lines To Offer Goddess Retreat As A Sanctuary To Women

Sarah Lines, leading soul coach to spiritual entrepreneurs, today announced the Lilith Moon Goddess Retreat, taking place at Blewitt Springs in September this year.

Sarah Lines is proud to bring the Lilith Moon Goddess Retreat to Blewitt Springs for the first time ever. The Retreat will be held in a local vineyard with cosy, private rooms in a rustic lodge, surrounded by the beautiful Australian flora and native wildlife; designed specifically with female needs in mind.

Along with workshops on soul connection, spiritual healing, womb wellness, and sacred sisterhood, there will also be an emphasis on connecting with the inner Goddess.

An interactive, yet relaxed format was chosen to allow women to escape the demands of everyday life so they can re-connect with who they are and unleash their inner Goddess.

Sarah Lines believes that every woman is a Goddess, but those parts of her get lost through the responsibilities of everyday life and stress.

"Many Australian women have suffered from extreme depression and anxiety during the pandemic; this retreat is a way to re-ignite that inner spark and start enjoying life again in a really special way," Goddess Alchemy Academy founder & owner Sarah Lines said.
