

Speaker Boy Release His Studio Album "Caught Beetwen Sounds"

Madrid, Spain Jan 11, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - After 3 years of absence, the young producer returns with a complete and powerful EP containing 11 variable tracks from Future House to Drum 'N' Bass that he presented on August 17, 2021, through the Record Label "Y12 Records" on Digital Platforms. Like Spotify, Apple Music, Amazon Music, Deezer, and more.

the support was previously supported by producers such as "Martín Garrix", "FIGHT CLVB", "ETC ETC!", "Autoerotique", "James Dece", "Dimitri Vangelis & Wyman", & more.

The album had a prelude in which "Speaker Boy" released in 2020 "Bipolar" one of its most powerful tracks, with energetic, low, and distorted sounds.

The album ranges from the simplest to the most powerful, with dark, rhythmic sounds, and with energy, the album contains 11 songs that vary by genre so that there would be more variety in the tastes of the audience, so declared the producer saying " I didn't want to do a single genre album, it gets boring later, I wanted to give people something unique but varied "

Media Contact

Jack Goods

speakerboy@kangainspace.club

698914184

Source : issuewire.com

See on IssueWire