TOM WRIGHT ACRYLIC ON WOOD ABSTRACTS (MRTOMWRIGHT.COM)

Los Angeles, California Jan 15, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - For the 2022 LA Art Show, artist Tom Wright will be exhibiting three very earthy abstracts from his diverse catalogue. This exhibit commemorates Wright's second year participating in the show. Wright, a "renaissance" artist in the sense of his broad scope of artistry, creates with a variety of mediums, ranging from acrylics, water colors, and even sandpaper and ink. This is evidenced by his industrial collections that are unusual yet stirring with vast muted color palettes. He doesn't title his work and he doesn't sign them in the front. This could be because "there's a little bit of him in every painting."

"If you look, you'll see me in it. Every portrait I do has a little bit of me. There's no thought. It's just self-expression or peering out at the world." -Agenda Magazine Interview, Painter Tom Wright and His Stabbings of the World

A West Hollywood resident and a professional golfer, Tom Wright earned his wide scope for aesthetics through his worldly experiences, which include working in the entertainment field. That's why his collections flow and ebb so easily. His is a Ph.D. in Life and it echoes in his work.

"All this terminology about color schemes and palettes . . . this just comes out. Art for me is spontaneous combustion!”—Agenda Magazine Interview, Painter Tom Wright and His Stabbings of the World

BG Gallery (will again) during the 2022 LA Art Show display Tom Wright’s new paintings, which are acrylic paint on pine wood. Each one is 4”x5” framed in a shaped box on opening night, South Hall at the Los Angeles Convention Center. (<https://bggalleryshop.com>)

The LA Art Show is the most comprehensive international contemporary art show in America. It returns to the LA Convention Center only six months after its last event. This kick-off to the city’s 2022 art season comes on the heels of an incredibly successful summer return to live events. LA’s largest and longest-running art fair makes a triumphant return to its traditional January event dates after the special July edition, continuing to provide a sense of normalcy for attendees, galleries, and the art world as a whole. The LA Art Show has established a reputation for leading the pack. As such, visitors can expect great art, international exhibitors, and even new trends such as NFT (digital art) and more.

Since 2015, LA Art Show has been a strong and unwavering supporter of St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital® as it leads the way the world understands, treats, and defeats childhood cancer and other life-threatening diseases. In 2022, St. Jude returns as the beneficiary with the LA Art Show donating 15% of all ticket proceeds to its life-saving mission. The LA Art Show is proud to bring together St. Jude and the art community.

The LA Art Show is from January 19th through January 23rd, 2022 with the opening night premiere and day tickets, including VIP entry, located at the Los Angeles Convention Center – South Hall, 1201 South Figueroa Street Los Angeles, CA 90015. For more information and to purchase tickets visit LAArtShow.com.

About Tom Wright:

The Los Angeles artist, Tom Wright, will often combine many worlds in his paintings and may even incorporate more lines and levels to keep the gallery of people guessing where he’s going with his art, leaving much to the viewer’s interpretation. A prolific painter whose art crosses multiple platforms, Wright’s medium of choice is acrylics and he is a master at impressionism and complex abstracts, using anything from canvas to paper bags, and painting satire to self-portraits with themes ranging from somber to joyful to alarming. Great use of the color palette, Tom Wright’s paintings are imaginative, colorful, and emotionally stirring, and a favorite amongst local galleries. Visit:
