Vesna Jamborcic, MD, an Internist with The Polyclinic Madison Center

Get to know Internist Dr. Vesna Jamborcic, who serves patients in Seattle, Washington.
New York City, New York Jan 25, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A trusted internist, Dr. Jamborcic provides primary care to adults of all ages and treats patients with acute and chronic illness at The Polyclinic Madison Center in Seattle, Washington. Her special interests are preventive medicine, wellness, and integrative medicine. She enjoys guiding patients in healthy habits with lifestyle changes.

“I believe in preserving health as long as possible and also using a holistic approach when appropriate. I enjoy connecting with patients and arriving at a mutual plan of treatment and seeing positive effects of lifestyle changes” expressed Dr. Jamborcic.

Back in the early days of her academic career, she graduated with her medical degree from the University of Belgrade and completed her internship at the University Eye Clinic in Serbia. After relocating to the United States, she completed her residency in internal medicine at St. Joseph Mercy Oakland Hospital.

An authority in her field, the doctor is board-certified in internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.

On a more personal note, Dr. Jamborcic is fluent in both English and Serbian.
