

Who is Tycho.44? Upcoming Hip-Hop Artist

Ogdensburg, New York Jan 13, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Gage Langstaff, known as Hip-hop Artist Tycho.44 from Ogdensburg, NY. The music industry is ever-evolving. The best artists can adapt to the latest trends. Tycho.44 is a chameleon who adapts in any era. Tycho.44 has been a student of the game his whole life, showing the drive and passion he has for hip-hop music. Aside from that - an artist is only as good as their availability to interact with the crowd. Many artists nowadays end up throwing away their opportunities for negativity and I am the rare few with a blank slate. Tycho is here for the music, because of his love of music.

Tycho.44 in Five Years

A Grammy Award-Winning, Platinum Selling, Trendsetting Household Name. Tycho eats, sleeps, and breathes music! There is no plan b for him. He's all in with the career he's chosen and he's comfortable with his decision. Tycho.44 always said music keeps me going. It's his fuel to get through this brief stay on this floating rock. With so much hard work and sacrifice put in over the years, he cannot envision anything, but the top. If he doesn't reach his full potential, he always feels dead to the world. Tycho.44 doesn't need to ask for his recognition, people will know who he is.

The legacy Tycho.44 wishes to leave behind?

The best legacies are the ones that aren't only left behind, but the ones you get to step back and see while you are creating them. Even as a starving artist Tycho had people tell him how much He's inspired them. He also had a woman with cancer tell him, that he inspired her and that's when he got goosebumps. That's what keeps Tycho going when it feels like nothing is falling into place for him. Tycho wants to inspire anyone who is influenced by his product and his story. The best thing about music: however, is that even when he's long gone, he can still talk to those willing to listen and they can personify his legacy for many many many years after.
