A LIFE TO REGRET is the story of a teenager living in the comfort of her Grandmother's house in DR Congo who is to move to Tanzania to live with her Dad LOUIS (Awilo Longomba) and her stepmom SHUNGU. She encounters child abuse.

Her Dad LOUIS is keen to build a relationship with his daughter NIKKIKI as she had grown up without him around. SHUNGU shows hostility, shaves her hair, and starts abusing her.

NIKKIKI's stepmom SHUNGU is into witchcraft. She leads NIKKIKI into being sexually abused by a friend of LOUIS who is also part of the witches coven. The authorities get involved, investigations start, unfortunately, there isn't sufficient evidence to help her out of SHUNGU's hands.

NIKKIKI's father LOUIS is now under SHUNGU's spells, he does not take her side anymore and mistreats her with violence to the point of chasing her out of the house. As a result of her injuries, NIKKIKI gets hospitalized. This raises concerns from her uncle BIG FIZZO who is her dad's young brother. He tries to intervene and he eventually manages to take her from the hands of SHUNGU and organizes her 18th birthday surprise party with her favorite singer Harmonize.
