

Anthesianz's New Songs: The Wonderful Colours Of Hope, Love & Truth

As a form of love and efforts to preserve exotic woven fabrics by Indonesian artists, it may be supported by an archipelago expert, Bung Samuel Wattimena.

Jakarta, Indonesia Feb 12, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Released 8 Singles, Anthesianz's First Album Titled #1 Hope Officially Launched on Monday, Feb 14, 2022, on Virtual meeting.

Singer and songwriter Anthesianz officially launched his debut album, entitled #1 Hope. The album, which contains 8 singles, will also enliven the music industry in Indonesia and abroad.

The man who is also an actor pours the lyrics of the song in English which are packaged in a neat and contemporary way.

Anthesianz was also awarded the #ArtistForChange title by DistroKid, New York, USA-Charity for his contribution to focusing his attention on five international social movements.

In addition, domestically, he also donated the proceeds from the sale of his single to the traditional playing preservation movement community, Traditional Games Returns, and the Wastra Nusantara Community.

The songs in this album, such as Love Is In, Party In The Morning, Vividly, Hope and others, are full of tempo beats and melodies that bring listeners into the values of local wisdom packaged in a contemporary feel.

"All the lyrics of the song were expressed in English. Because it is in accordance with his hope, namely that through this work, it is hoped that it can reach anyone, anywhere in the world. So that love and peace will be created forever," said Anthesianz from Artstage Entertainment, DistroKid Records.

He said, the #1 Hope album contains quality songs and has deep meaning, so the artistic value is very high. Because songwriters and singers have feelings and emotions embodied in their vocals and music.

In addition, the songs, which will feature clothing from various works by Wastra Nusantara, make this album even thicker with the colors of Indonesian tradition. As a form of love and efforts to preserve exotic woven fabrics by Indonesian artists, it may be supported by an archipelago expert, Bung Samuel Wattimena.

The man who was born in Purwakarta, on November 29, is known as a pop singer with a distinctive voice and wide octave range. He is also known as a principal at Quiver Center Academy Tangerang, and school manager of Pelita Harapan Bangsa Kota Tegal, and is also known to be very fond of scientific research in the fields of art, culture, and education, especially education for the kids in Indonesia.

"All the lyrics of the song were revealed in English. Because it is in accordance with his hope, namely that through this work, it is hoped that it can reach anyone, anywhere in the world. So that love and peace will be created forever," said Anthesianz in a statement, Monday (14 /2/2022).

Furthermore, Anthesianz, which is under Artstage Entertainment, DistroKid Records, stated that this #1 Hope album contains quality songs and has deep meaning. Because songwriters and singers have feelings and emotions embodied in their vocals and music.

"O praise Jesus Christ, who made us according to His purpose, my life is His message actually, these all to glorify His name. I am alive! I am dynamic! " He said. "God made the culture is dynamic. With the dynamics of being a researcher and educator as well, contemporary habits emerge. As I am currently releasing an album titled #1 Hope with the Groovin pop-electric genre, there are 8 songs and next two albums coming soon this year, all of which are made into singles, yeahh it's a trilogy album #1 Hope, #2 LOve and #3 Truth" he explained.

Anthesianz himself has been named the official artist channel on YouTube. The name is interpreted imaginatively by him as someone who has the values of goodness and truth, a world full of honesty, peace, love, and good change.
