CambridgeHomeLoan is now helping Veterans with va loan information and quick processing of applications

Tampa, Florida Feb 3, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Launching with a short film, mortgage lender Cambridge Home Loan is joining the VA loan market in full force by utilizing an incredibly streamlined process for active-duty military members, Veterans, and their families. Cambridge Home Loan realizes the need for better lending service options tailored to the unique needs of service members. Veteran feedback only reinforced the group's drive to create a brand-new product to properly serve America's heroes and their families.

"It is our mission to challenge the status quo of VA lending," said Doug Thaler, President of Cambridge Home Loan. "We will provide the best conditions with fast and reliable service because everything we do, and how we do it, is about our members of the military and not about us."

Customers who apply with Cambridge Home Loan can rest assured that the company will handle all paperwork and pay for their appraisal. In addition, the experts at Cambridge Home Loan can close in as little as 14 days. And while mortgage rates are currently trending up, Cambridge Home Loan can still offer rates in the twos.

"We launched Cambridge Home Loan after quickly realizing the options available for our service members were not what they deserve," said Doug Thaler, President of Cambridge Home Loan. "We looked at what other lenders in the industry were providing and knew we could do a lot better."

Cambridge Home Loan has a history of commitment to Veterans and to giving back. Built into the mission is committed to supporting Veteran-owned businesses.

"Buying a home is the American Dream, and no one deserves that dream more than the men and women who have served this great nation," said Thaler. "We work hard to get cost-effective loans in a short amount of time to our heroes; we built Cambridge Home Loan for them. Our strong connections with organizations that support our active service members, Veterans, and their families will further set us apart from other VA lenders."
