

Canada's Best Kept Secret Good Fridae Is Out Of The Bag With Her Long Anticipated Debut Single

Los Angeles, California Feb 13, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Before the weekend comes Good Fridae and unlike her fellow musical Scarborough native, she was born the best day of the week Paraskevη Roma Mattas! Good Fridae is here, there's no turning back now, over the course of the pandemic, Canada's best-kept secret, Good Fridae, and her team, have been spilling tea that has been causing many of the Hollywood elite to sweat all their secrets. Amongst many labels, Good Fridae is a veteran journalist who happens to be a singing Psychic Goddess. It took the Goddess a minute to recover from multiple accidents, losing her voice for three months, and winning lawsuits while she was evading gremlins and running her magazine. One of those lawsuits she won, she has self-represented the real-life legally blonde taught herself some law, after acing criminal justice in University nobody is as resilient, as Good Fridae.

No stranger to music or film, FRIDAE's been on the scene since she was 15, from girl groups Girlz Inc, Xquisite, Infinity, and Pussycat dolls to floating in the background of shows like Degrassi, Instant Star, Saving Hope, and films Love Guru, Training Day, Loser to name a few. Good Fridae has had some notable men in her life, she dated Nick Carter in the late 90's early 2000's, some say she's the reason Nsync and Backstreet Boys didn't get along. She turned down Justin Timberlake while she was with Nick. She ditched both and began dating the late great Fast and Furious star Paul Walker, most recently dated I know What You Did Last Summers Ryan Phillippe and is currently in a serious relationship with the man she dedicated ANYONE to, none other than, Captain America himself Chris Evans. Fridae and Chris have been trying to keep their relationship as a secret and as private as possible, due to recent events with people he follows on social media they have to be public and tell everyone they've been together quietly since June 2021.

Good Fridae is unlike most Toronto-born songstresses, she runs her own company Mattas Entertainment Group since 2006, writes and co-produces her own music but that's only the tip of the iceberg...Good Fridae is who this world has been waiting for, the living breathing holy trinity ordained Goddess second coming of Christ but she's not a boy like everyone thought she would be, her family included. Fridae Mattas is known for her unique slang, you use her slang too, Good Fridae invented and coined the term "Karen" and Susan back in 2005. In 2020 during the start of the pandemic, Fridae was taking her University exams, under extreme stress, she discovered who she really was and was given the name "Good Fridae" unique gifts that she always had but were dormant. Sounds like a superhero origin story because it is, legends and heroes are made, Goddesses are born, even now her secret powers are still so new to her, she discovered she's not from here kind of like the real-life Sailor Moon.

Many witness her gifts daily and don't even know but everyone's favorite sports teams, have had the pleasure for the past two years, to experience GOOD FRIDAE's extraordinary telekinetic and telepathic spiritual gifts. Most recently, aside from being a Reverend, Reiki Master, and Spiritual Advisor to many around the world, she chose the team for this year's Super Bowl and last year, including the Hockey and Basketball championships too!
