New York City, New York Feb 16, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Castro is a family nurse practitioner currently serving patients at Medi-Weightloss Clinic in Wayne, New Jersey. In order to provide her patients with the best care, she currently specializes in preventative medicine, wellness, and pediatric oncology.

Medi-Weightloss Clinic was developed by physicians, registered dietitians, and health professionals in the area of weight loss to help patients control their calorie and carbohydrate intake while eating the optimum amount of protein to preserve muscle mass. The Medi-Weightloss® Program is evidence-based to result in a successful lifestyle change. When administering the treatment, Medi-Weightloss® healthcare providers take each patient's unique health profile into account.

With a broad educational background, Dr. Castro obtained her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree from Hartwick College. From there, she attended Pace University and completed her Master of Science in Nursing degree, followed by her Doctor of Nursing Practice degree from William Paterson University.

An active member of the Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing, she is board-certified by the American Association of Nurse Practitioners (AANP), which is the largest and only full-service national professional membership organization for NPs of all specialties.

A Board-Certified Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP-BC) holds board certification and provides continuing and comprehensive healthcare for the individual and family across all ages, genders, diseases, and body systems. FNPs maintain patient records, perform physical exams, order or perform diagnostic tests, prescribe medications, develop treatment plans, as well as treat acute and chronic illnesses, conditions, and injuries that fall under primary care.
