An appeal From Homeless Empowerment Trust

There are millions of homeless people living in miserable conditions all over the world. We clearly know that there are thousands of people working to benefit society. However, homeless people are always neglected.

On the contrary, the nomad is a new cool. Sadly, the conditions of these homeless people are gut-wrenching and very terrifying. They fail to even get a two-course meal a day. We have seen the ground reality of people living under flyovers. They are barely living their life.

Homeless Empowerment Trust has managed to offer basic help to these people. We have provided blankets and food to these people. We managed to provide them jobs based on their skills so that they can afford bread and butter for themselves.

We are planning to shape the condition of homeless people in India with the help of people among us. Your little contribution can make a big impact on the daily lives of these homeless people living among us.

We, as an NGO, are planning to do big things for these people. Our agenda also includes providing them with proper shelter. It can only be possible if you and we come together to support this big cause.

Homelessness is a major issue in our country and we are doing everything we can to address it. We need your help to make a difference. Please donate or volunteer today.
