In one recent case, Mr. Smith was able to win a wrongful death case for $4 million for a family who lost their husband and father when he was killed by an 18-wheeler on I-75 just outside Atlanta, Georgia. The family had thought they were going to be left without any money after paying out all their savings on medical bills while they nursed him through his illness before his death, but Mr. Smith fought diligently to ensure that not only did they have enough money for funeral expenses, but also enough left over to pay off existing debts and continue getting financial support from government agencies while they settled into life as a single income household. Mr. Smith is experienced in handling cases like these; if you need someone in your corner fighting hard for you call The Law Office of J.
