Iberia Airlines Cancellation Policy

While this airline's cancellation policy is fairly easy to understand, it has certain rules as well! Just look at the following to find out more:

- If you have booked your ticket via instant payment, then you can cancel it within 24 hours after purchase without paying any amount as a cancellation fee. It will be done according to Iberia's 24 -hour cancellation policy.
- If you have booked your ticket online or through a travel agent, then you will also request a refund according to the cancellation policy.
- If you miss this risk-free cancellation window, you will have to pay that amount as a cancellation fee when you cancel your booking. This amount depends on certain factors such as the tariff plan chosen, route, cancellation time, etc.
- You can cancel the ticket easily by browsing the official website of the airline · If a passenger dies suddenly or untimely, the airline will provide full compensation to his family. However, some important documents will be required for that.
