Get to know Advanced Registered Nurse Practitioner, Janie Stegemann, who serves patients throughout the State of Iowa.

New York City, New York Feb 16, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Janie is an advanced registered nurse practitioner currently affiliated with Mission Cancer + Blood, seeing patients at MercyOne Cancer Center, MercyOne Clive Cancer Center, and John Stoddard Cancer Center.

Similar to the nation's most renowned community cancer practices, Mission Cancer + Blood offers on-site labs and chemotherapy infusion suites, financial counseling, clinical trials, multidisciplinary tumor boards, and quality of care that matches and even surpasses the most recognized institutions. Developing lifelong relationships with their patients enables their world-class medical professionals to have a deep understanding of their specific cancer or blood disorder.

Back in the early days of her academic career, Janie earned her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree from Chamberlain University in 2015. She then went on to graduate with her advanced registered nurse practitioner degree from the same educational venue in 2020.

Continuously advancing her efforts, she is an active member of the Iowa Nurse Practitioner Society, and the American Association of Nurse Practitioners.

On a more personal note, Janie attributes her success to the support from her family.

An Advanced Registered Nurse Practitioner (ARNP) is a nurse with postgraduate education in nursing. ARNPs can have primary responsibility for patient care. They practice independently to limited supervision depending on state regulations and also may work collaboratively with physicians and other healthcare professionals. Additional ARNP roles include certified registered nurse anesthetists and certified nurse-midwives.
