New York City, New York Feb 1, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A prominent emergency physician, Dr.

Rush is the CEO and Chief Medical Officer of Arthritis Knee Pain Center, with offices in Dallas and Woodlands, Texas.

“I am honored to be a part of the hard-working Arthritis Knee Pain Centers family. People all over the country look to us to relieve them of the debilitating pain caused by osteoarthritis. Our patients are truly our purpose. As an organization, we strive to elevate and focus on the care of our patients” expressed the doctor.

With a broad educational background, Dr. Rush obtained his Bachelor of Science degree from Kent State University in 1983 and graduated with his medical degree from the Northeast Ohio Medical University in 1987. He completed his internship and residency in emergency medicine at the Loma Linda University Medical Center in 1990 and went on to complete his Master of Business Administration degree (MBA) and his Master of Health Administration degree (MHA) from Pfeiffer University.

Emergency medicine, also known as accident and emergency medicine, is the medical specialty concerned with the care of illnesses or injuries requiring immediate medical attention. An emergency physician works in an emergency department to care for acutely ill or injured patients on an unscheduled basis.
