New York City, New York Feb 16, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Maria is a family nurse practitioner currently serving her patients at Chacko Allergy, Asthma, and Sinus Center in Alpharetta, Georgia. In order to ensure all of her patients receive the proper care, she specializes in asthma and allergies. They offer oral immunotherapy treatments for patients with food allergies and Maria is very involved in the treatment program.

Chacko Allergy, Asthma, and Sinus Center is home to the leading adult and pediatric allergy and immunology services in Georgia. They deliver the highest quality treatment with a compassionate and considerate approach,

To begin her career, Maria earned her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree in 2009 from Georgia State University. She then went on to further her education by earning her Master of Science in Nursing degree at the same educational venue in 2014.

A professional member of the American Association of Nurse Practitioners, she is certified in Basic Life Support.

A Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP) is an advanced practice registered nurse who works autonomously or in collaboration with other healthcare professionals, to deliver family-focused care. Given the rather broad nature of the “family” patient population focus, FNPs offer a wide range of healthcare services that revolve around the family unit; from health promotion and disease prevention to direct care and counseling across the lifespan.

As a testament to her success, Maria was awarded the Georgia State University Evangeline Lane Founders Award in 2009.

On a more personal note, she attributes her success to the support of her family and her love of the profession. She is fluent in both English and Spanish.
