To begin her career, Michelle earned her Licensed Practical Nurse degree from Central Community College in 1992. She received her nursing degree from South University in 2016, and her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree from Creighton University in 2020.

Remaining up to date in her field, she is an active member of the American Association of Nurse Practitioners, and the Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing.

On a more personal note, Michelle attributes her success to her desire to help people.

An Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN) is a nurse who has obtained at least a master's degree in nursing. APRNs may work across various healthcare settings, including hospitals, ambulatory clinics, or long-term care facilities. They provide medical support and preventative care to patients, along with additional responsibilities of coordinating patient care and using specialized knowledge to manage complex patient conditions. APRNs can diagnose and treat as well as order and interpret tests and prescribe medications.
