Money Coo is a songwriter who lives and breathes music. You can hear it in the way his songs seep an easy mix of Strip Club, Urban Trap, Gangsta Rap, Realistic Soul, and hip hop. You can see it in his dynamic live performances; the sort of on-stage parties celebrity rapper 2 Short once threw. And you sure as hell can't miss it when he starts to capture the audience!

A fan of HipHop greats such as The Legendary DJ Screw, Jay Z, the Now deceased Hiphop ICONS 2 Pac & Biggie, Eminem, Lil Wayne, and J Cole and the storytelling songwriting of Scarface, Money Coo is on a mission to bring quality back to the Billboards. "I'm obsessed with writing the perfect song and putting on a proper live show," says the songwriter. "There was a time when all performing artists felt like that, now, music is all about making money and getting to No.1. "I don't care about that." I would rather make music that touches people."

Ecstatically receiving opportunities supporting his career, I've also heard him described as a "New Wave of Southern HipHop at its Finest", " with a dash of POP, a melodic musical force waiting to happen" and - By GOD - "as gifted with musical talent". With a classical EP TITLE, "Made in Galveston" The young risk-taker, already rolling an infectious, first single, "A Hunded", already picking up Spotify streams, and radio play, Money Coo is set to give the HipHop scene a much-needed kick up you no what for sleeping on him so long!

while signed to UnitedMasters Publishing and writing with a singer from the UK named Serena Deena, a few I can't reveal right now, he's looking forward to collaborating with other artists. Locking partnerships, developing marketing initiatives, some product features or product lines. Although being in his mid-thirties Coo' had been in the music business for almost 2 decades already, At 13 he was already a competent rapper and he has been establishing relationships with a few of Hip-hop's well-known celebrities.
