Hasina Knox has written her new book with exciting pictures and rhyming sentences. This will attract children and bond with their parents, grandparents, and teachers. The first book, "A Journey of Tastes", is an interesting and engaging storytelling book ideal for kids aged 3-7 years old with vivid pictures of delicious foods and captivating illustrations. Children can learn different kinds of foods from various regions while enjoying cooking activities with their parents. In addition, they can also learn the days of the week in order and learn about the seven largest continents in this rhyming and repetitive storytelling book.

"A Journey of Flavours is a very captivating and interesting book for my children. It introduces us to the delicious cuisines of the world and learns about the clothing of different cultures. A Journey of Flavours is a well-written and beautifully presented book with a recipe cookbook at the back. These activities boost my children's self-confidence and focus", said one of the readers.
