Get to know Internist Dr. Peter L. Sealy, who serves patients in Washington, D.C.

New York City, New York Feb 10, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A seasoned internist, Dr. Sealy serves as the Associate Dean for Graduate Medical Education (GME) and the ACGME Designated Institutional Official (DIO) for Howard University Hospital. He is also an Associate Professor at the Howard University College of Medicine.

Over the course of its 145-year history of providing the finest primary, secondary, and tertiary health care services, Howard University Hospital has become one of the most comprehensive health care facilities in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area and designated a DC Level 1 Trauma Center. In April 2007, the Hospital ranked number one among selected area hospitals on 19 quality measures published by the U.S. Health and Human Services Department.

Beginning his professional pursuits at the University of the West Indies Faculty of Medical Sciences in Kingston, Jamaica, Dr. Sealy went on to further his training by completing a residency in internal medicine at Howard University Hospital.

As a testament to his success, the doctor has been recognized as a Diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

In order to remain up to date in his field, he is an active member of the American College of Physicians, and the Association of Program Directors of Internal Medicine.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.

Attributing his success to hard work and dedication, Dr. Sealy enjoys cooking and soccer in his free time. His favorite place to vacation in Vancouver, Canada.
