

Rare new Kohinoor Diamond NFT is for sale from ifunft on Opensea in 2022

New York, United States Feb 16, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - NFT is the hot new thing that has taken over the world. On the world's biggest NFT marketplace Opensea NFT seller iFUNFT has minted a brand new exclusive NFT art that is Kohinoor Diamond NFT. Kohinoor or Koh-i-Noor also known as "Mountain of Lights" is the largest cut diamond in the world whose worth is more than a billion dollars or you could say it's priceless and it is a part of the British crown. It is also one of the most precious expensive diamonds as well. And just like the diamond, the Kohinoor Diamond NFT is 1:1 edition and also a luxurious item to possess. It is one of the most precious NFT in the Meta-verse indeed.

Like the Kohinoor diamond, the NFT also can be obtained by only one person. Only one person in the world will have the opportunity to make it a part of his/her collection in the lifetime of the Meta-verse. The owner can even sell it in the future for better deals. It is one of the top NFT's to look for in 2022. Its current price is 1005 Ethereum(USD 3 million) from iFUNFT, on Opensea.

Kohinoor Diamond NFT is the newest sensation in the NFT world. It is a real collectors' item and according to market experts, it has great possibilities to be valued 100's by millions in the future of the Meta-verse and take it as a valuable investment for the buyer. The sale will end on March 16th, 2022. Let's see who pays the hefty sum to own the NFT. To have a look at the Kohinoor NFT, go to the link <https://rb.gy/8jbdzv>

Other NFT's from the seller minted are of an American poker player and entrepreneur Dan Bilzerian, and some apes.
