

Speed Trader Coin Will End Its Community Airdrop On March 3rd, 2022

London, United Kingdom Feb 16, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Investing in the stock market has been made hundred times easier by the newest cryptocurrency named Speed Trader Coin or SPTC. The users can now invest in the stock market as they please without worrying about the high fees as the website demands zero fees. The website is currently hosting a community airdrop, where traders with public wallets will be able to gain coins during the event. The community airdrop is completely free, and the event will end on March 3rd, 2022.

The community users can participate in the airdrop event by following some simple rules. They can take part in the airdrop by following their telegram bot steps. The current airdrop quantity is 20,000,000,000 SPTC (20%). The initial amount each address will receive is 10,000 SPTC. The airdrop rewards will be distributed to the submitted address after the airdrop is over.

The users will receive an additional SPTC token as a reward for inviting a friend to participate in the airdrop. For inviting each friend, the users will gain 1,000 SPTC tokens as a reward. The traders can invite up to 50 friends and acquire 50,000 SPTC token rewards. The quantity for the airdrop is limited, and the issuance of the SPTC is small. The quota to receive the crypto token depends on the arrival time of BNB. The current estimated listing price of a single SPTC token is $0.05. After the pre-sale is over, 50% of the raised funds will be used for its listing on Binance, Coinbase, and Huobi. The rest of the 50% will be used to purchase SPTC coins back from the traders. That way, the token will be safe from getting dumped.

Speed Trader Coin or SPTC is the latest cryptocurrency built with modern blockchain technology. The users can make instant transactions and invest in stocks with SPTC, powered by blockchain. The company's CEO is Richard Fritsch, who is also the leader of the blockchain department.
