

Taimaz Etaati, musical artist on the rise in 2022

Istanbul, Turkey Feb 19, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Taimaz Etaati was born in Tehran, Iran. As a graduate of the Conservatory of Music, he received a bachelor's degree in violin performance. Besides being a composer, he is also an arranger of electronic and pop music, as well as a film soundtrack composer. In recent years, he has worked on arranging songs for pop ensembles as well as performing live in some of them. He has also been creating fusion music since the year 2020.

Taimaz is the son of Jabir. He was born in Tehran. As a member of a musical family, he was raised by musicians. Tiamaz's father was a doctor of music who was also a member of the Masses Symphony Orchestra of Tehran. His grandfather, Rashid VatanDoost, was an opera soloist and a classical singer. Taimaz graduated from the University in 2009 with a degree in violin performance. His studies in music also led him to graduate from the Faculty of Arts and Architecture. In addition, he is also a composer and controller of electronic music in Iran. The topics that he specializes in are music videos, pop, and electronic music.

His four years of study in Iran were spent completing courses in the recording and mixing of electronic music from 2011 through 2015, which he has since completed. He also opened a collection for the regulation and production of music in 2017. This collection is referred to as the House Music Collection.

Taimaz has been arranging music in recent years, as well as playing in pop groups.

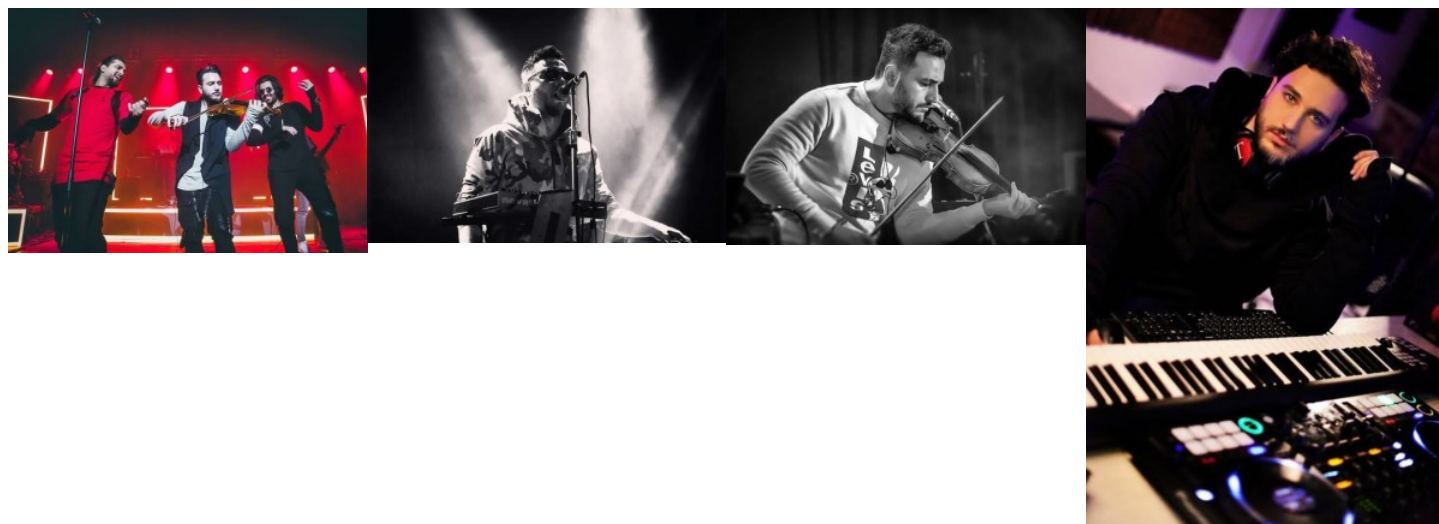

The Taimaz multilateral cooperation included the Macan Band, Farzad Farzin, Hamid Hirad, Sohrab Pakzad, Hamid Reza Tarkashvand, and a number of others. Currently, he has been working on an electronic compilation album of his own music since 2020. Taimaz has a great passion for three genres of music. There are three styles he follows; a rock style, a classical style, as well as an EDM style. Most of what he learned on his special violin was in the traditional Iranian violin style, which he learned from his father.

Collaborations

There are many famous brands that Taimaz has worked with. There have been more than 150 concerts with Macan Band performed by him, and he has composed and arranged music for Farzad Farzin, as well. "Tabestoone," "Karma," "Why You," and "Wolf" are some of the songs he has collaborated on with Farzad Farzin. Taimaz's Instagram page provides a comprehensive view of what he is doing as well as his collaborations with a number of popular bands and singers.

RED FACE

His latest work is an album titled 'Red Face. One of the talented musicians that he has the chance to work with on Red Face is PED1NE. Red Face will be coming out in summer 2022. In the meantime, you can listen to his other work on his website taimazetaati.com.

Media Contact

Taimaz Etaati

Taimaz7violin@gmail.com

Source : Taimaz Etaati

See on IssueWire