

Tech4TH Expands in North America with a New Office in Canada

Tech4TH expands global footprint with new office in Canada

Toronto, Ontario Feb 23, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Tech4TH Solutions, an AI-focused global travel technology solutions, and services company, today announced the opening of a new office in the Greater Toronto Area, Canada. The decision is in alignment with their overall expansion strategy in North America, allowing the company to cater to the growing customer demand from the region. The new facility is also geared to attracting the burgeoning local talent in areas of AI/ML and Data Science.

It has been and remains a turbulent time for the travel and hospitality industry. With its deep technology and industry experience, Tech4TH is committed to helping enterprises reimagine travel with innovative solutions powered by AI technologies. The new office in Canada will play a key role in building digital capabilities and serving the Canadian travel enterprises in their digital transformation initiatives.

“North America is a strategic region for Tech4TH, and Canada is the ideal choice to expand our geographical presence, considering the deep talent pool and competitive cost of business operations. We are keen to invest in local expertise and new talent to meet the growing needs of innovation by the travel businesses in the region and globally. We are excited to watch our business grow from here,” said Siva Vajjhala, Chief Executive Officer, Tech4TH.
