Paris, France Mar 7, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - After the prodigious success of Conferences on Paediatrics and Neonatology, Magnus Group takes immense pleasure in inviting you to the highly informative “4th Edition of Global Conference on Pediatrics and Neonatology (EPN 2022)” which is scheduled as a hybrid event in Paris, France, and virtually during September 08-09, 2022.

This year the congress will be moving along the theme of “Promoting Excellence by Investigating the Unexplored Areas of Paediatrics and Neonatology.”

EPN conferences continue their long legacy of offering delegates the most up-to-date information on crucial areas of neonatal and paediatric research and healthcare management. The purpose of this year’s two-day scientific gathering is to improve paediatrics and neonatal outcomes by bringing together experts, researchers, scientists, healthcare practitioners, paediatricians, neonatologists, nurses, clinicians, and industry giants to discuss the best practises, recent trends, innovations, and challenges faced by the field of paediatrics and neonatology. The programme will feature keynote sessions, plenary talks, invited lecturers, symposiums, oral and poster sessions from around the world who are experts in neonatal and paediatric medicine. Attending EPN 2022 will give you unprecedented access to cutting-edge research presentations and conversations, giving you the finest opportunity to form new collaborations, gain novel ideas, and get feedback for your own work.
