

Catching Up With Florence Carmela Of The Forum Celebrity Podcast

Fairfield, Connecticut Mar 6, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Meet Celebrity Interviewer Florence Carmela. As co-host of "The Forum" Celebrity Podcast on The JAMPA Media Network Florence has combined her love of broadcasting and writing about celebrities. Along with JAMPA Media founder James Patrick, they have welcomed many celebrities into their world, also known as the fun, upbeat podcast called The Forum. Their podcast is on over 100 different platforms including iHeartRadio, Spotify, Apple, and YouTube. Florence also writes articles based on interviews and encounters with celebrities.

Her career started in radio with a dream..a lot of persistence, great timing, and a little bit of luck as she recalls. Once she made the decision to finally pursue a career in radio after several years in Education it was "absolutely the most exhilarating, yet frightening undertaking of my entire life" she blogs on her website.

She worked for Cumulus Media for almost 2 years and enjoyed her time at WEBE108 and WICC600 working at the LIVE radio and broadcasting events and meeting all the fans who come out to have the "radio experience" and get to know everyone behind the scenes as well as their favorite radio DJs & hosts.

She also quips, they recently interviewed Actor Steven Schirripa from The Sopranos and Blue Bloods fame, Dr. Michelle Oakley from Yukon Vet on Discovery, and Reality TV Star Colin Macy O'toole of Bravo TV Below Deck Mediterranean.

Looking forward to bringing many more celebrity interviews to my website FlorenceCarmela.com and on our podcast The Forum.
