

Cocoa, Florida Rapper Tj Da Kid may be the next to blow in 2022

The singles Tj Da Kid has been releasing lately have been catching a lot of buzz.

Titusville, Florida Mar 1, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - We've always considered Tj Da Kid as one of the most underrated artists in Hip-Hop and we look forward to watching him become a megastar in the music industry.

19-year-old Tyjah Bellinger, A.K.A. Tj Da Kid, has been catching the attention of people from around the world after dropping his hit single 'Action' on Jan 14. People from all over the world love his music because they understand how he's feeling with his melodic flow and catchy beats. The Florida native started making music in early 2019 and has been taking everyone by surprise dropping hit after hit. After dropping out of high school Tj began working a job and focusing on his music career. Tj said he would record 3 to 4 songs every day after work and hit the studio every weekend for the next 4 months and build a catalog of hits!!

The Florida native has had a lot of eyes on him in the last couple of years. In 2020, he dropped "Rough Ryder" prod by 6k which got a lot of praise. Rough Ryder was an air of the No Jumper live stream which lead to a co-sign Adam 22 and a SoundCloud repost from Aylek$. He's looking to carry on the momentum with a new track on the way called 'Road' produced by 6k.
