

Crypto Crazy Piggies Celebrate "National Pig Day"

Crypto Crazy Piggies NFTs are coming

West Hollywood, California Mar 1, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Crypto Crazy Piggies Celebrate "National Pig Day" by announcing the pending launch of 10,000 Crypto Crazy Piggie NFTs—unique digital collectibles.

The purpose of National Pig Day is to accord the Pig its rightful, though generally unrecognized, place as one of man's most intellectual and domesticated animals, and what better way than to immortalize the Pig as a unique digital collectible.

The Crypto Crazy Piggies reflect society's obsession and insatiable thirst for crypto and NFT's. It's time to bring home the bacon by collecting Crypto Crazy Piggies.

"NFT celebrity collectors have "Aped In" with The Bored Ape Yaught Club, now it's time to "Pig Out" with the Crypto Crazy Piggies" said Piggies Creative Director Kevin Bacon (no not that Kevin Bacon)

NFT collectors will want to have Piggies in their Portfolio. No collection will be complete without at least one of the Crypto Crazy Piggies.
