

Flood Effectuated Residential Landlords Get Free Property Rental Management & Domain Listing

In support of all Australians in flood affected areas, Instarent is offering landlords an option to take up our services free of charge

Sydney, New South Wales Mar 16, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Instarent, a national online rental platform for landlords and tenants directly connects vacant rental properties to individuals and family renters without the need for intervention by any third party to significantly increase lease approvals to under 48 hours.

Instarent's Free 'Rental Management Package' includes a one-year premium subscription free of charge plus every landlord signing up will receive a complimentary domain.com.au and instarent.com.au property listing to boost their visibility. (Total value at over $500 each)

Instarent enables anyone to be their own property manager with complete ability to list and lease their own rental homes, screen, and select tenants, run financial and taxation obligations, conduct online inspections, direct-debit rental payments and so much more.

www.instarent.com.au empowers landlords and tenants to self-manage their own residential leasing, tenancy, and moving requirements with online availability on any connected device 24/7 and optional free apps on google play and apple app stores.

Our residential property management ecosystem allows anyone to operate a secure lessor and lessee relationship and incorporate local business services and utility connection capabilities all on one simple-to-use platform.
