

Growthjack beta for marketers is going live on 15th March

New Delhi, Delhi Mar 9, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - The beta version of the new and transformed Growthjack will go live on 15th March 2022.

Growthjack started in 2016 and scaled from an integrated experiential agency founded on a rooftop to an integrated experience-first agency.

Headquartered in New Delhi, Growthjack grows every day from its offices in Mumbai, Bangalore, Wapi, and Patna.

With digital workflows to enable convenience and save costs for clients, Growthjack's vision is to transform business in India through fluid omnichannel strategies and memorable experiences.

Growthjack will launch the invite-only access only after March this year. According to its spokespersons, the company is launching its platform for marketers and growth hackers to bring greater access to digital tools and growth strategies already in the public domain. According to a tweet from the official channel of Founder Darsh Bera, the purpose is to bring access to these growth strategies to small and big enterprises.
