

Igor Huzicka, MD, an Internist with Vail International Physicians

Get to know Internist Dr. Igor Huzicka, who serves patients in Colorado, nationwide and internationally.

serves patients at his private practice - Vail International Physicians - in Colorado and, via telemedicine, nationwide and internationally. He works hard to provide outstanding medical care through comprehensive diagnostic workup, timely appointments, and diligent follow-up.

Back in 1997, he earned his medical degree from the First Medical Faculty of Charles University in the Czech Republic. After relocating to the United States, he completed his residency in internal medicine at Allegheny General Hospital in 2002. Finally, he completed a fellowship in allergy & immunology at the Cornell Medical Center in 2003.

Subsequent to his education, the doctor attained board certification in internal medicine through the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.
