

Karlo Tanjuakio Officially Launches Kure

Honolulu, Hawaii Mar 23, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Karlo Tanjuakio is proud to announce the official launching of Kure, a platform designed to Democratize Quality Improvement. Kure and its founding team understand that businesses need to adapt to changing environments, optimizing as needed. As such, Kure hopes to offer the technology and tools needed to scale this process optimization.

Kure democratizes quality improvement by providing everyone with the ability to complete QI projects. The app offers several tools to ensure successful adaptation, including features to help intelligently identify QI opportunities, automatically create project plans, and encourage team collaboration. Kure takes this process further by providing suggested timelines on all actions, automating reports, and ensuring that all information is user-friendly.

A diverse team of healthcare, education, and optimization experts make up the backbone of Kure. Karlo Tanjuakio is the CEO & Founder, with Bill Eureka, Ken Maynard, and Stephen Boreman acting leadership roles within the organization. Collectively, they have over one hundred years of experience within their industries.

Karlo Tanjuakio is a driven entrepreneur from Honolulu, Hawaii. He earned his altMBA at Seth Godin's Akimbo Workshop, where he received in-depth training on leadership and management. During his career, Karlo has set his sights on improving many industries, particularly Healthcare, Finance, Government, and non-profits.

As an entrepreneur, Karlo has come to embrace the idea of always learning something new. He's gained a wealth of knowledge in branding, SEO, SEM, CRM, website development, product development, etc. Over the years, Karo Tanjuakio's hard work has been acknowledged, earning him several awards. This includes recognition from Inc. 500 and Inc. 5000, as well as the Financial Times 500 Americas — which highlight the fastest-growing private companies in North America. Similarly, Karlo was awarded one of Hawaii's Fastest 50 Growing Companies by Pacific Business News four years in a row.

Ultimately, Karlo Tanjuakio's goal is to help empower others with the ability to optimize their companies and communities — resulting in increased productivity and work-life balance for all. He hopes that Kure, which he founded in 2021, will be just the platform to help people achieve this.

Media Contact

Kure

support@kureko.com

Source : Kure

See on IssueWire